

Plant health care Technician

JOB DUTIES: Plant health care Tech performs fertilization and integrated pest management on tree and shrubs and lawns using spray and injection tools. Customer service is a key element of the position, as well as routing, product mixing and application., Tree and shrub ID, Pathology, and knowledge of turf or tree physiology are valuable but not required, we will train.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Two or Four year degree in Forestry, Urban Forestry, Horticulture or related discipline a plus, but not required.

Ability to identify local tree species and knowledge of growth rates.

ISA Certified Arborist a plus as is related past experience.

Excellent communication skills

Specific task training provided

Leadership experience and a desire for career growth will be given a priority.

Valid driver's license,

Certified applicators license a plus where applicable.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Full time hourly position. Compensation based on qualifications and experience. Branches Tree Experts offers competitive wages, excellent benefits and full-time position includes option to buy company stock after one year. Branches tree experts based in Kensington Maryland serving the Washington DC metro area. branchesetc@comcast.net 301-589-6181